

Figure 1 is a scatter plot with 'Scaled DOY' on the x-axis (ranging from -2 to 2) and an unlabeled y-axis (ranging from 8 to 20). The plot contains several data points colored green, blue, and purple. A red curve represents a positive trend, while green, blue, and purple lines represent negative trends for different groups of data points.

